Proposal for Professional Development Funds for Teaching Professors

Priority will be given to faculty presenting at professional conferences, but proposals from faculty wishing to attend a conference, particularly a conference focused on pedagogy in your discipline, will also be seriously considered. Proposals for other kinds of opportunities, including page charges or other forms of publication subventions, should be described in detail below. Funding decisions will be made within 30 days of submitting your proposal.

As our resources for professional development are quite limited, faculty should exhaust other sources of funding (faculty support accounts, department sources, grants, etc.) before seeking financial assistance from CASB. Please remember to include matching funds and additional sources of support in the budget section of this form, or confirm that you have no other sources of professional development support. Approvals for professional development funds from CASB are limited to one per academic year.

Description:

If this opportunity is not a professional conference, please describe it here:

How do you think this opportunity will help you to develop skills or attain knowledge that will contribute to your role in CASB? Or, how will it allow you to make a significant contribution to your department, CASB, or your profession at large?

Please provide a detailed budget for this proposal, including the total funds being requested. Be sure to include whatever departmental funds or other matching funds you have secured, or confirm that you have no access to other sources of funds.

Impact Statement: Professional Development Funds for Teaching Professors in CASB

Within 30 days of the conclusion of your funded opportunity, please submit a statement of no more than one page that describes the outcome(s) of this experience. Prepare this statement any way you choose, but the following questions might help you to focus your response.

- How was this experience helpful? How might it affect the trajectory of your career?
- What impact will this experience have on your teaching?
- How might this experience inspire you to continue working in this area?

Please submit your impact statement, via email, to Kate Drowne at kdrowne@mst.edu. You must submit your impact statement within 30 days if you wish to remain eligible for future professional development funds from CASB.
